King dismisses petition of First Continental Congress, 1775

BOOM
American Revolution

April, 1775... Ready to fight at a moment's notice, minutemen began fighting early in the American Revolution. Their efforts at Lexington and Concord inspired many patriots to take up arms against Britain. The first battle of the war, Lexington, marked the beginning of the American Revolution. Although Lexington and Concord were considered British military victories, they gave a moral boost to the American colonists.
