Army Rangers

There are many specialized branches of the United States military. The Green Berets and Navy Seals are some of the most famous of these groups, but the Army Rangers, also known as the 75th Ranger Regiment, are an elite group of the Army who go into dangerous situations to protect our country. The Rangers are a rapidly deployable, highly trained, light infantry force that can be called into war anywhere in the world within 18 hours. Their headquarters is at Fort Benning in Georgia, and their motto is "Rangers Lead the Way." They may be sent into battle to conduct raids on the enemy or recover people or equipment in a dangerous situation. They may conduct operations over land, sea, or air to complete their mission. This special ops division of the Army was created during World War II in 1942.

WEEK 2 WEDNESDAY

Read the following selection and answer the questions that follow.

Arlington National Cemetery

Throughout our country’s history, men and women have fought for the freedoms we hold so dear. That is one reason Arlington National Cemetery was created. The cemetery was established in 1864 during the Civil War for people who served in the military to be buried there. It sits on 624 acres of land in Arlington, Virginia near the Potomac River. The land originally belonged to George Washington’s relatives and was chosen as the cemetery because it was high land and overlooked Washington D.C. More than 240 thousand service members and their families are buried on the property. There are also many famous people buried at the cemetery such as John F. Kennedy, Thurgood Marshall, and Chief Justice Earl Warren. The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier is also on the grounds. This monument, or a place that serves as a memorial, is dedicated to American soldiers who have died without their remains being identified.

- 1. Which words help the reader know the meaning of monument? (4.3B)
  - A. place that serves as a memorial
  - B. American soldiers who have died
  - C. many famous people
  - D. on the grounds
- 2. Which sentence from the selection BEST shows that there are a multitude of graves at Arlington National Cemetery? (4.6F)
